Mrs. A. R. Tabor, of Crider, Mo., had been troubled with sick headache for about five years, when she began taking Chamberlain's Tablets. She has taken two bottles of them and they have cured her. Sick headache is caused by a disordered stomach for which these tablets are especially intended. Try them, get well and stay well. Sold by all dealers.—adv.

Bad Little Girl.

"Who is a bad little girl?" said a friend of ours playfully to a wee thing in frock and pantalets, just now. "I am a bad girl," was the naive reply. "Oh, no, you are not a bad little girl!" "Yeth I am," persisted the little one. "Then tell me why you are a bad girl." "Because I'm a boy!" answered the wee rascal.

Here is a remedy that will cure your cold. Why waste time and money experimenting when you can get a preparation that has won a world-wide reputation by its cures of this disease and can always be depended upon? It is known everywhere as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and is a medicine of real merit. For sale by all dealers.—adv.

A Bishop's Suspenders.

Suspenders are modern, decidedly so. There are men still living in South Carolina who remember when an effort was made to discipline the great Bishop William Capers of the Methodist church for wearing them. It was contended that in doing so he set a bad example by a display of worldliness.

J. H. Curran of St. Louis was here Friday and rented rooms over the Irondale Bank, and placed L. C. Woodrow in charge of the office. This office will assist the St. Louis office in handling the sales of the Big River Lead Co., now being offered to Colonists. The large tract of land has been divided in ten-acre tracts and offered to wage earners at reasonable terms.

R. J. Welch, living near Hopewell, accidentally shot himself Christmas day while out hunting. He placed the gun on the ground to twist a rabbit out of a log, and on attempting to again raise it the gun discharged and shot him in the left leg. Dr. Yeargan attended his wound. He is reported seriously injured, but will likely recover. Mr. Welch has just moved to this section and we regret his mishap.

Bert Baker and Miss Anna Linza were married at Bismarck Christmas eve, and will make their future home near Caledonia on a farm. Miss Linza is the youngest daughter of C. F. Linza, and an accomplished girl, and Mr. Baker has erected a neat cottage home for his bride on his farm. Both are well and favorably known here, and all wish them success in life's efforts.

The Concord Township Good Roads Association reports the completion of the auto highway towards Frankelay, and places the town in touch with the Arcadia Auto Highway. The work has been actively supervised by the association and it is unique, as the only organization of its kind in the county. Each school district has a vice president and the association meets monthly to discuss the good roads movement. The entire township has enjoyed the good roads spirit, and the highways are now in keeping with any in this section of the State. Several inquiries have been received regarding the good roads organization, and of its workings, and from other States as well as from Missouri.

No Vagabond Currents There.

A system for the protection of gas and water mains against vagabond currents is in use at Karlsruhe. This is formed by placing at suitable spots electrodes in the ground and connecting them to the positive pole of a low tension source of electricity (an accumulator or dynamo), while the pipes to be protected are connected to the negative pole.

Fuel Economy Method.

Tests made by a French railroad of a device for heating water before it reaches the boiler by exhaust steam showed a fuel economy of more than twelve per cent.

Has Plenty of Time.

A clock in St. Petersburg has 95 faces, indicating simultaneously the time at 30 different spots on the earth's surface, besides the movements of the earth and planets.

Over at Belgrade they are going to have a religious debate of four hours a day for six days. Religion and the tariff are the two questions that are capable of unlimited argument without getting a positive conclusion.—Potosi Journal.

To Clean Oil Paintings.

To cleanse the surface of oil paintings, and remove dust and soft marks, first dust the surface, thoroughly of light particles of dust. Then prepare a bath of warm water and add there to a grated potato grated fine, and well rub this over the paintings till clean. Afterward wash over with a light suds of warm water and castile soap, using a sponge, and finally rinse in clean soft water and dry with a soft cloth or chamglo.

Spiritual Insulation.

Many a man, who is now thrilled with the currents of the life of this modern age, freely passing through him, is in danger of moral disaster, through defective spiritual insulation. Are the wires of your ambition well wrapped around with the insulating material of prayer and faith and love?—Zion's Herald.
